

Safe Transitions And Reduced Tardies

START on Time!

A multimedia in-service program for middle school and high school that will:

- Reduce frequency of tardiness by up to 80%
- Increase instructional time lost to tardiness
- Increase hallway safety
- Improve school climate
- Increase interactions between staff and students

Contents

START on Time!

Introduction	2
Using the Program	3
About Pacific Northwest Publishing	6
Safe & Civil Schools Overview	7
Implementing START on Time!	9
Acknowledgements	11
Resources and References	12

Outlines and Tools

What START on Time! Can Do for Your School	14
Step 1: Pre-Plan: Understand the START on Time! Procedures ...	18
Step 2: Determine Administrative Commitment	22
Step 3: Establish a Planning Task Force and a Time Line	23
Step 4: Identify the Problems and Establish Baseline Data	24
Step 5: Design a Plan to Obtain Staff Commitment	29
Step 6: Organize for Success	30
Step 7: Determine Expectations for Students and Design Lessons	40
• Lesson 1: The Most Important Things You Should Know	45
• Lesson 2: Locker Logic	53
• Lesson 3: Tardiness and the “Positive Sweep”	57
• Lesson 4: Civility Throughout All School Settings	64
• Lesson 5: Civil Interactions with School Staff and Taking Pride in the School	70
• Lesson 6: Safety in the Halls, Restrooms, and Courtyards	74
Step 8: Determine Expectations for Staff and Prepare a Training Session	81
Step 9: Prepare for Implementation	90
Step 10: Monitor Progress and Implementation	93