

The Tough Kid[®]

*New Teacher
Book*

Practical Classroom Management Survival
Strategies for the New Teacher

GINGER RHODE, PH.D.

WILLIAM R. JENSON, PH.D.

DANIEL P. MORGAN, PH.D.

Preface i

SECTION 1

Anticipating the Trip Ahead: Why You Should Read

This Manual and What It Will Do for You 1

Organization of This Book 4

Our Point of View. 6

SECTION 2

Seat Belts Fastened, Tray Tables Up:

Getting Ready for Takeoff. 9

The Importance of the First Few Days 12

Kicking the Tires and Making Sure the Wings Are Attached 13

Classroom Scheduling for Takeoff. 16

Other Procedures Related to Time 17

Taxiing Down the Runway. 19

SECTION 3

Avoiding Turbulence:

Classroom Rules and Expectations 23

Good Rules. 24

Take Action to Teach Your Rules 28

Rules Summary 31

Teaching Classroom Procedures 32

SECTION 4

This Is Your Captain Speaking: Talk Low, Talk Slow, and Don't Say Too Much 35

Factors Affecting Compliance. 36

Precision Requests 38

SECTION 5

Navigating the Trip: The What If? Chart	41
Rule Monitoring Chart	54

SECTION 6

Traveling First Class:

Upping the Ante for Rule Following	55
Reward Spinners	57
Grab Bags	58
Chart Moves	58

SECTION 7

Going Supersonic: Beyond the Basics	61
Yes/No Program	61
Get 'em On Task (GOT) Program	66
Classroom Bingo	66
Response Cost Lottery	68
The "Sure I Will" Program	69

SECTION 8

Houston, We've Got a Problem:

Chronic Rule Breakers	73
Self-Monitoring Rules	74
Interclass Time Out	75
Home Notes	82
Self-Monitoring Classroom Rules	86

SECTION 9

Turbulence Encountered, Return to Your Seat:

Special Behavior Problems	87
Noncompliance	88
Swearing	90
Disrespectful Behavior	91
Talk-Outs	93
Pulling It Together	95

SECTION 10

Achieving Medallion Status: Kicking It Up a Notch 97

Provide Needed Accommodations: Leveling the “Playing Field”	97
---	----

SECTION 11

Using Your Seat Cushion as a Flotation Device:

Some More Tips for Surviving Your First Year	101
---	------------

SECTION 12

Become a Top Gun: Secrets of Master Teachers107

References	115
-----------------------------	------------

Additional Resources	119
---------------------------------------	------------